2018 Travis J. Martin Memorial Scholarship

ABOUT US: The Everybody Love Everybody (ELE) Foundation is a 501c3 Non-Profit Organization established in memory of Travis J. Martin, our beloved friend, who tragically passed away at the age of 27 on July 23, 2016. Travis was a man beyond our time. He exemplified compassion, love, hard work, and dedication to all facets of his life. The ELE Foundation will continue the legacy that Travis left behind and better the community through service, giving, and a college scholarship offering. This scholarship, in Travis J. Martin's memory, is for current high school seniors. Travis believed that hard work and dedication were some of the keys to achieving the goals for oneself. His personality was infectious, selfless, and full of life. He was extremely active in church, school, and athletic activities. Travis made a positive difference in the lives of so many people. By utilizing this scholarship, it is our hope that recipients will keep the legacy of Travis alive by empowering others through love, giving, hard work, and dedication.
